2340 received call from a female being very vague about what to do if there are a lot of people speeding or driving reckless etc. after several minutes she stated that there could be a party going on I asked her for the address and she stated Moon Valley Dr I asked if she knew if it was closer to the 100's or 15000's and she did not know, I then asked for address and she did not want to give it. I gave her the none emergency police number for her to call if she need assistance for criminal activity and I advised her when I got back into the area I would drive up Moon Valley and see if I could find something. 2400 at 1485X N Moon Valley drive there was a high volume of teenagers which appeared to be carrying cases of beer into the home. I would estimate close to 50 cars and none of them appeared to be adults. I contacted the Phoenix Police Dept., dispatcher stated they have had a few call already. I kept an eye on the area and lots of vehicles are coming and going then they started throwing glass bottles. I called Phoenix Police back and they arrived around 120am, unfortunately a large group had already left. And there were about 15 others that took off running, so the police started writing tickets for every car parked in the street. I assume it was only if they were parked illegally, but needless to say after the police left the area was quick the rest of the night.

While conducting a vacation watch on a home in the 15000 block of 2nd Street. It was discovered that the back door leading into the garage was tampered with. There were chisel marks on the door leading into the garage and wood chips lying on the ground. Tried to contact the residents with emergency phone number but the mailbox was full. With the excellent lock Security on the back door entrance into the residence was not attained. All other doors and windows of the residencies are locked, secured and unbroken. Another burglary was reported at the 00 block of East Canterbury Circle. This burglary took place sometime between 5:30 a.m. and 6:30 a.m. When residents were out for their morning walk. The burglars obtained entrance through the doggie door and escaped out through the back, presumably through the wash that backs up with Hillcrest. This was reported to the police.
